

Alexander Brello
10/12/2024

The logic being visualized in the flowchart is what is required to outline the decision making process for determining whether the college should be closed based on weather temperature. The threshold is <32F.